HighBrook Acquires 302 Carson in Las Vegas, NV

HighBrook Press Release
New York, N.Y. / January 2015

HighBrook Investors, a New York based real estate private equity firm, announced today that one of its affiliates has purchased 302 Carson, an eleven-story 160,692 SF office building located in the Central Business District of Las Vegas, NV. HighBrook acquired the property on an off-market basis through its relationship with the previous ownership group.

About HighBrook Investors

HighBrook Investors (“HighBrook”) is a New York based real estate private equity firm that was founded in 2010 as a unique entity bringing to bear the best practices from both the private equity and hedge fund industries. As a value-oriented investor, HighBrook acquires and actively manages previously underperforming income-producing property investments on a national basis. The firm specializes in recapitalizing properties that are encumbered by complicated financial structures, in transactions that typically require speed, flexibility and substantial capital infusions. As an entrepreneurial and well-capitalized organization, HighBrook is uniquely positioned in the marketplace.
