HighBrook Sells Four Properties, Northern Netherlands

January 8, 2018

HighBrook Investors Press Release
New York, New York

---

HighBrook Investors, a New York based real estate private equity firm, announced today that in December 2017 and January 2018 one of its affiliates sold four properties (the “Properties”) located in Groningen (2), Assen and Leeuwarden, Netherlands totaling 123,500 square feet. HighBrook Investors acquired the smaller, secondary office buildings as part of two large portfolios and executed on its business plan by selling the Properties to four separate buyers within the first year of ownership.

About HighBrook Investors

HighBrook Investors is a New York-based real estate private equity firm that was founded in 2010, as a unique entity bringing to bear the best practices from both the private equity and hedge fund industries. As a value-oriented investor, HighBrook Investors acquires and actively manages previously underperforming income-producing property investments. The firm specializes in recapitalizing properties that are encumbered by complicated financial structures, through executing transactions that typically require speed, flexibility and substantial capital infusions. As an entrepreneurial and well-capitalized organization, HighBrook Investors is uniquely positioned in the marketplace.
