HighBrook Acquires Pacific Park Plaza in Honolulu, HI

HighBrook Press Release
New York, N.Y. / March 2012

HighBrook Investors, a New York based real estate private equity firm, announced today that one of its affiliates has acquired a defaulted first mortgage note secured by Pacific Park Plaza, a 254,658 SF office building in the Kapiolani submarket of Honolulu, HI. HighBrook has subsequently acquired a leasehold interest in the property through a transaction with the previous ownership group and lender.

About HighBrook Investors

HighBrook Investors (“HighBrook”) is a New York based real estate private equity firm that was founded in 2010 as a unique entity bringing to bear the best practices from both the private equity and hedge fund industries. As a value-oriented investor, HighBrook acquires and actively manages previously underperforming income-producing property investments on a national basis. The firm specializes in recapitalizing properties that are encumbered by complicated financial structures, in transactions that typically require speed, flexibility and substantial capital infusions. As an entrepreneurial and well-capitalized organization, HighBrook is uniquely positioned in the marketplace.
